The Invention of Shoes Questions & Answers

Question 1: What was king Hobu worried about?

Answer: King Hobu was worried about his feet getting dirty whenever he stepped on the ground. He wanted to get rid of the dust in his kingdom, so that his feet would remain clean.

Question 2: Did the entire world really get filled with dust? Why does the king say so?

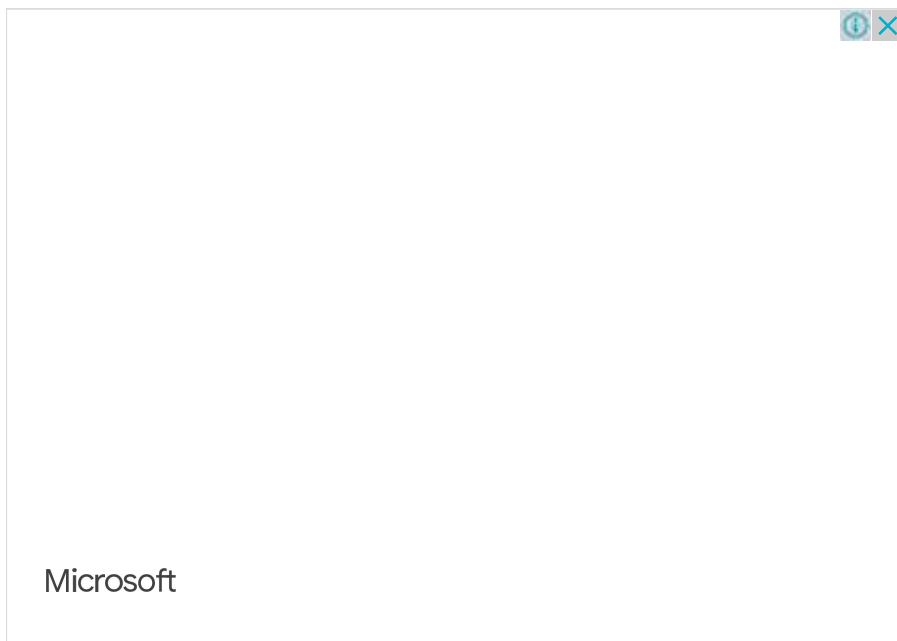

Answer: The entire world did not get filled with dust. However, the king says this to show the amount of dust all the sweeping had brought about.

Question 3: How was the Earth saved?

Answer: The king and his men damaged the Earth by sweeping all the mud and then emptying the rivers and lakes. They even wanted to cover the entire kingdom with carpets and leather. But the tanner's clever idea of making shoes for the royal feet saved the Earth.

Question 4: Describe how brooms were used to clean the dust in king Hobu's kingdom and what was the result?

Answer: Seventeen lakh fifty thousand brooms were purchased for the dusting of the kingdom. But it created so much dust that everybody started coughing and choking. The king's face was covered with dust and even the sun could not be seen because the air was filled with dust.

The Invention of Shoes Questions & Answers*Question 5: Write the character sketch of king Hobu and gobu Rai?

Answer: King Hobu is comical because he is fussy about getting his feet dirty. He sets the whole kingdom to find a solution to his problem. He is ungrateful because he wanted to punish the old tanner who was trying to solve his problem. He likes the shoes and feels happy as the shoes kept his feet warm and clean.

Gobu Rai was king's minister. He pretended to be a clever man. He does not want to look foolish in front of others. He wants to take credit for the clever idea. He is selfish and cunning.
